Mr. Tate is considering running for re-election as Circuit Court Clerk. He has made a No. 1 good official, and should receive the unanimous endorsement of his party.

The following is a card from Wilford J. Scofield relative to their return trip to this place: "We started Wednesday and are at Burlington, Iowa, tonight, Monday. Expect to get through the Keokuk, Iowa, lock, which is one of the largest in the world, tomorrow. We won't get to Chattanooga much before the 18th of November."

ARRESTED FOR BURNING STORE

Walter Henry and Dave Henry were arrested at Guild Monday and brought to jail at Jasper for setting fire to their place of business Sunday. It seems that the building, a small store house, containing a small stock, was discovered on fire Sunday. An alarm was given and hose was stretched to a fire plug in an effort to quench the flames. This did not satisfy the Henry brothers, who cut the hose with their knives and before new hose could be secured the fire was beyond control, and building and stock were destroyed.

A Gentle and Effective Laxative.

A mild, gentle and effective laxative is what people demand when suffering from constipation. Thousands swear by Dr. King's New Life Pills. High Tullman, of San Antonio, Tex., writes: "They are, beyond question, the best pills my wife and I have ever taken." They never cause pain. Price 5c at drugstore, or by mail. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

CELEBRATE THEIR TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 23.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hooper entertained Wednesday evening celebrating their twentieth wedding anniversary. Their elegant home was thrown open to their guests from eight o'clock until eleven. The house was beautifully decorated in wedding colors, pink and green, and with a profusion of ferns and flowers. The parlor and living room were decorated in pink and yellow with touches of green. The dining table was decorated in pink and green loops caught at each end with garlands of green. In the center of the table was a bunch of Killarney roses. At ten o'clock the spacious hall was opened to serve the guests. Seats were extended to each end of the hall where the guests were served with cream and cake, with a plate of fruits. Those assisting at the table were Mrs. M. Ashburn and Mrs. Walter Clark. After refreshments were served the handsome array of hand painted china was displayed on a table decorated with red and white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Hooper received many beautiful pieces of china, showing how their friends appreciated and esteemed them. Music was rendered by the Fritts Band, Prof. Freiberg, Misses Louise Wilson and Willie Ray Kelson.

Those enjoying the evening were: Prof. and Mrs. Freiberg, Senator and Mrs. Ed Bass, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Collins, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. S. Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. M. You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, ailing women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you.

You can't make a mistake in taking

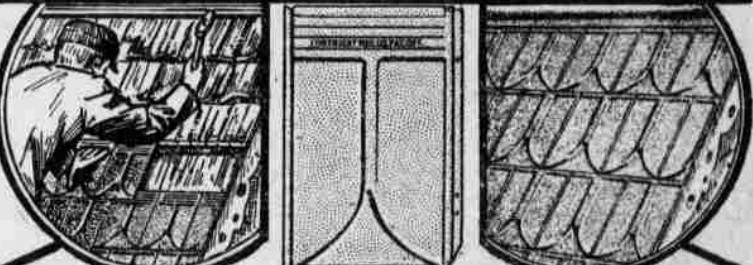

GARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.

Pleasure and Protection

"One of the best reasons why I would not be without telephone service," writes a Georgia farmer, "is the pleasure it gives my wife and the knowledge that while I am away, she has the protection that the telephone gives."

On the farm the telephone dispels loneliness and is the means of bringing help in any emergency that may arise.

If you haven't a telephone on your farm see the nearest Bell Telephone Manager or write for our free booklet and learn how little this service costs.
